

Kentucky Pandemic Electronic Benefit Transfer
Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs)
(August and September)

What is Pandemic Electronic Benefits Transfer (P-EBT)?

Pandemic Electronic Benefit Transfer (P-EBT) provides stimulus to households with children eligible for free or reduced-price school meals during the COVID-19 Response. P-EBT provides a benefits card that families can use to replace school meals. For more information please visit the CHFS P-EBT webpage.

Who is eligible for August and September P-EBT Stimulus?

For the months of August and September, students who attend schools that qualify for free or reduced-price meals and have the following class schedules are eligible for the P-EBT Stimulus:

- All Virtual- Families with students attending virtual classes for at least 5 consecutive school days are eligible for the P-EBT Stimulus.
- Hybrid (in-person and virtual)-Families with students attending hybrid classes that are virtual for at least 5 consecutive school days in the given benefit months are eligible for the P-EBT Stimulus.

Students who are not eligible:

- Families with students attending in-person classes
- Traditional homeschool students

How do I apply for the P-EBT Stimulus?

There is no application required for August and September. A new card will automatically be sent to each child. The child's personal information (SSN, DOB) is used to activate the card.

How are eligible students determined?

Schools that participate in the National School Lunch Program determine the eligibility for each child and the number of days in August and September that each child is eligible to receive.

How much is the P-EBT benefit?

P-EBT stimulus amounts will vary and are specific to each student. The maximum rates provided in Kentucky will be used including the severe need breakfast and lunch rates. Weekends and holidays are not included. Rates per student: $5.86/day

When will I receive my stimulus card?

Cards will be mailed starting in October; some children may not receive a card until the end of November.

How can I get help with P-EBT?

Please call 1-855-306-8959 and select Healthcare and Food Benefits option if you need assistance.

Is the P-EBT Stimulus a public assistance program?

No, P-EBT helps reimburse families facing the unexpected new expense of meals at home for a student who would have normally received free/reduced-price meals at school through the National School Lunch Program.

Is the P-EBT Stimulus the same as SNAP (formally known as Food Stamps)?

No, the P-EBT Stimulus is separate from SNAP.

How will households currently receiving SNAP benefits receive the P-EBT Stimulus Package?

Households currently receiving SNAP will receive a new P-EBT card for each eligible child. Are homeschool children eligible? No. Only children who were enrolled in a school where they received free/reduced price meals through the National School Lunch Program are eligible for the P-EBT Stimulus Package.

Will Head Start students receive the P-EBT Stimulus?

Head Start students eligible for free or reduced-price lunch at schools offering the National School Lunch Program (NSLP) and who meet the appropriate class schedule (virtual or hybrid) are eligible to receive the P-EBT Stimulus.

I have more than one child eligible for free or reduced lunch. Will I receive one card or individual cards for each child? A separate EBT card will be issued for each eligible student.

Can student benefits be split between households?

No. Benefits will be issued to each child based on the most recent address available. It is important to remember that the benefit is for the student and should be provided to the parent or guardian purchasing food for the student.

What can I buy with the P-EBT Stimulus?

Any food for the household, such as:

- Fruits and vegetables
- Meat, poultry, fish
- Dairy products
- Breads and cereals
- Snack foods and non-alcoholic beverages
- Seeds and plants which produce food for the child to eat

Households may not use P-EBT benefits to buy:

- Beer, wine, liquor, cigarettes, tobacco
- Vitamins, medicines, supplements
Items with a supplement facts label are considered supplements and not eligible for P-EBT purchase.
- Live animals (except shellfish, fish removed from water and animals slaughtered prior to pick-up from the store).
- Prepared foods fit for immediate consumption
- Hot foods
- Nonfood items such as:
 - Pet foods
 - Cleaning supplies, paper products and other household supplies.
 - Hygiene items, cosmetics

Can I give the card or benefit to someone else if I don't need it?

No. The benefit is intended for the child only. It cannot be give away or transferred.

Do I have to purchase items only in Kentucky?

No, you may use your P-EBT card anywhere EBT is accepted.

Can I purchase items online?

Yes, you may use your P-EBT card to make online purchases at participating retailers. Please refer to retailer websites for more information.

How long do I have to spend my P-EBT benefits?

Your P-EBT benefits will remain active on your card for one year.

If I receive the P-EBT Stimulus will it affect my eligibility for other public assistance programs?

No. P-EBT benefits are an additional service and will not affect your eligibility for other public assistance programs. We encourage families to continue using school and community meal sites for free, nutritious meals for children. Families can go online to Meals for Kids interactive map for local sites where kids can get free meals.

Will P-EBT be considered in a public charge determination?

No, receipt of P-EBT will not be considered in a public charge determination.

What information is needed to activate my P-EBT card? You must have the last 4 digits of the Social Security Number (SSN) and date of birth (MM/DD/YYYY) of the person whose name is on the card. If the person does not have a SSN, you must enter the date of birth and zip code where the card was mailed.

What does the card look like?
